

Epekwitk Mi'kmaq Kinship Support Map

A quick navigation sheet for Mi'kmaq grandparents, relatives and other caregivers. Eligibility differs by service. Start with Mi'kmaq-led services and the child's First Nation where possible.

Mi'kmaq Confederacy of PEI

Shared programs in family support, health, education, Indigenous justice and sport.

Main: 902-626-2882 | info@mcpei.ca | mcpei.ca

Family PRIDE Program

Prevention and family support for eligible children, youth and families ordinarily resident on reserve in Abegweit and Lennox Island First Nations.

Current supports include in-home support, therapy, addictions / mental health treatment funding, transportation, respite, advocacy with Child Protection and emergency alternative-caregiver funding.

Start through MCPEI: 902-626-2882

Jordan's Principle

For eligible First Nations children with unmet health, social or educational needs.

National 24/7: 1-855-572-4453

Atlantic Region: 1-833-652-0210

Abegweit First Nation

Community health, wellness, social assistance, education and other services.

Main: 902-676-2353 | abegweit.ca

Epekwitk Mi'kmaq Kinship Support Map: More Contacts

Lennox Island First Nation

Health, social development, child and youth, family programs and other community services.

Main Band office: 902-831-2779 | lennoxisland.com

Health Centre: 902-831-2711

MCPEI Education

Advocacy and educational support for Epekwitnewaq Mi'kmaq learners in Band-operated and PEI public schools.

mcpei.ca/program/education

MCPEI Health

Works with First Nations communities to improve access to health programs, community capacity and health advocacy.

mcpei.ca/program/health

Urgent PEI services

Immediate danger: 9-1-1

Child Protection business hours: 1-877-341-3101

Child Protection after hours: 1-800-341-6868

PEI Mental Health and Addictions: 1-833-553-6983

Building GRAND-Families

We can help a caregiver find the right starting point, but Mi'kmaq community-specific, cultural and Nation questions should be answered by Mi'kmaq-led services or the child's First Nation.